CHAPTER 383

AN ACT to repeal and recreate 176.05 (21) (d) of the statutes, relating to the "Class B" license quotas in territory remaining after detachment.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

176.05 (21) (d) of the statutes is repealed and recreated to read:

176.05 (21) (d) Detachment of territory subsequent to any census enumeration and occurring after January 1, 1960, shall not decrease the quota of the remainder of the town, village or city to less than one license per 500 people or less than one license.

Approved October 2, 1963.
